FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION
ON PLEA OF GUILTY

United States District Judge Nelva Gonzales Ramos referred this case to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for the purpose of conducting a guilty plea proceeding pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.¹ The undersigned submits these Findings and Recommendation to the District Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3). All parties have waived the right to plead before a United States District Judge, and additionally, have consented to proceed before the undersigned.

On March 28, 2017, the defendant appeared with counsel before the undersigned Magistrate Judge and pleaded guilty to Count One (1) of the one-count indictment. The defendant was personally addressed in open court and admonished pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure as follows:

1. The defendant was placed under oath and advised that any false answers given during the plea proceeding could be used by the United States against the defendant in a prosecution for perjury or for making a false statement.

2. The defendant was advised that Count One (1) of the indictment charged him with transporting an undocumented alien in violation of Title 8, United States Code,

Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii), 1324(a)(1)(A)(v)(II), and 1324(a)(1)(B)(ii). The defendant was advised that these sections of Title 8 make it unlawful for any person knowing of the fact that an alien had come to, entered and remained in the United States in violation of law, to knowingly and intentionally transport said alien within the United States in furtherance of such violation by means of a motor vehicle.

3. The defendant was advised of the defendant's right to a jury trial, the right to the presumption of innocence, the right to require that the United States prove each of the elements of the offense to a jury beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant was further advised that the right to a jury trial included the right to see, hear and cross-examine witnesses, the right to compel witnesses to appear on the defendant's behalf, and the right to testify on the defendant's behalf or to remain silent. The defendant was advised that a plea of guilty would waive the right to a jury trial, the right to see, hear and cross examine witnesses, the right to compel witnesses to appear in the defendant's behalf, and the right to remain silent.

4. The defendant was advised that the United States must prove the following elements: (1) That an alien had entered or remained in the United States in violation of the law; (2) That the defendant knew the alien was in the United States in violation of law; and (3) That the defendant transported the alien within the United States with intent to further the alien's unlawful presence.

5. The defendant was advised that the maximum possible sentence included a prison term of up to five years plus a maximum fine of up to $250,000, and a period of supervised release of not more than three years, and that any violation of supervised release could result in an additional prison term of up to a maximum of two years.

The defendant also was advised that even if he received the maximum two year sentence for violation of supervised release, if he had not completed his full term of supervised release, he could be re-released to supervised release, and if revoked again he could receive up to a two year sentence again. The defendant was advised that this could happen multiple times until he had completed serving his term of supervised release.

The defendant also was advised that a mandatory $100 special assessment applied to this felony conviction. The defendant was further advised a non-indigent person convicted of the instant offense will be assessed an additional $5,000 assessment. See the "Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act of 2015", Pub. L. No. 114-22.

6. The defendant was advised of the District Court's obligation to calculate the applicable advisory sentencing guideline range and to consider that advisory range, possible departures and variances under the Sentencing Guidelines, and other sentencing factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). The defendant further stated that he understood and had discussed with his attorney how the guidelines might be calculated in his case and applied to him.

7. The defendant was advised that there was no plea agreement with the United States. The defendant and his counsel said the government offered a plea agreement and it was rejected after defense counsel reviewed and explained the plea agreement to the defendant.

The defendant stated that he had received a copy of the indictment; he understood the nature of the charge, the maximum possible penalty, and the consequences of pleading guilty. The defendant further stated that the plea of guilty was made freely and voluntarily, and did not result from any force, threats or coercion, and no one had promised the defendant a certain sentence. The defendant stated that he understood that if he did not receive the sentence hoped for, he could not withdraw his plea of guilty. The undersigned finds the defendant to be sufficiently competent to enter a plea of guilty.

The defendant pleaded guilty to the offense of transporting an undocumented alien in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii), 1324(a)(1)(A)(v)(II), and 1324(a)(1)(B)(ii) as alleged in Count One (1) of the Indictment. The defendant agreed with the factual basis provided by the Assistant United States Attorney during the plea proceedings. The factual basis covers each of the elements of the offense and establishes the Defendant is guilty of Count One (1).

The undersigned United States Magistrate Judge finds that defendant's guilty plea was freely and voluntarily tendered and did not result from force, threats, or promises and that an adequate factual basis exists in relation to this plea.

RECOMMENDATION

It is respectfully recommended that the District Court adopt the foregoing findings, accept the defendant's plea of guilty, and enter a finding that the defendant is guilty of Count One (1) as charged in the indictment.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of March, 2017.

Jason B. Libby
United States Magistrate Judge
